UNCC — The 49'ers' gold mine with maps full of clues and cross-references, a system of passageways where miners . . .

49'ers wander their way through winding tunnels, taking up the pick here and there, altering the structure by their search.

Miners meet, sometimes to exchange tales, but usually to just rest from looking and dreaming, and in this time and place they find another gold.

Miners hear stories from others with pasts of treasure seeking, who have gone through many times, who like to bring new miners to the place where they chip away, going deeper . . .

SCRUTINIZING

Dr. Dean W. Colvard
Chancellor

Dr. William Friday
President of the University of North Carolina

Dr. William Hugh McEniry Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs 1916-1974

The entire University community joins in mourning the loss of Dr. William Hugh McEniry. In both the southeast and the nation, he had earned a reputation as an able and dedicated academic administrator. Though he had had opportunities for positions of higher leadership, he chose to make his mark in the development of academic programs of the highest quality. The academic program to which he gave leadership here at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte shall long remain a memorial to him.

We shall not forget that he personally requested that one of the University's goals be that every member of the community be treated as an individual and as a person. Dr. McEniry was the epitome of a man of good will and his vibrance for life was infectious.

UNCC Students and Faculty!

While Charlotte has many fine business establishments, those advertising in these pages deserve the first attention of UNCC students and faculty. By their very appearance in the ROGUES 'N RASCALS, these businesses demonstrate a genuine intention to give UNCC students and faculty the best possible!

The Rogues 'n Rascals is the yearbook of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. The 1974 edition was created with the help of many people and, although we are unable to mention all those who contributed, we would like to extend a special thanks to the following:

Chris Cannon

Robert J. Alander Sam Watson

Ron Cathey Raiph Cook

Dean of Students Office

Frank Falkowski

Dean Kokenes and Gus's Original Forty-Niner

Charles Hartis Lynn Matheson

Fred Koger Skip Sirkis

Cathy Mauney
David Shuford

Taylor Publishing Company

The 1974 Rogues in Rascals was printed by Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas Basic type styles include Helvetica and Vogue Light, with printing on Warrens Dull Enamel. The cover is quarterbound in silver mylar, with hot foil stamping on black fabrikoid. Steven's Studios in Bangor, Maine was the portrait photographer. Additional specifications available upon request.

In the deep gold mine, strange tunnels swirl into concentric circles focusing, finally, on this time and place.

Unexpected twists in the passageway lead even the most fanatic seekers to find diversion.

49'ers slip past foggy memories of dreams . . . and dream on of the strike.

The state of the s

Most trails don't lead to any gold, but to new maps that start off new searches in other tunnels, and lead on to other maps.

Coming around a sudden corner, the miners wonder what is at the end . . . the end where the cave changes shape. So they pass through, on to other mines, where they must adjust to another light and try to recall excited eyes gleaming in dusty light

Back in this time and place, the 49'ers find their treasure.

And they go on deeper, and deeper.
